Declarations of interest

M Raymond re 3.3 and 3.4.

Minutes of last meeting

Proposed D Williams, seconded M Scrimshaw. All in favour.

Chairman thanked The Gate Inn for putting on a Coronation party. They had 30/40 for the afternoon tea and raised £75 from the raffle towards the fireworks, the fund of which was now up to £495.

1. Matters Arising

- 1.1. Asset transfer – following a site meeting with PCC before the meeting, they will now do the fence and the trees. Neil McCarthy will speak to Helen B-C at PCC after the meeting.
- 1.2. Defibrillator costs – noted. Clerk to get a few more quotes. In Trecwn there are 2 possible locations, one with power and one with no power so would need an insulated box.
The defibrillator at the Gate needs new adult pads, Clerk to procure. Proposed A Phelps, 2nd A Anderson.

2. Agenda Items

- 2.1. Zurich annual insurance – going with the slightly cheaper policy with no playground equipment cover for now of £241. Clerk to pay online.
- 2.2. Annual audit – Clerk prepared the audit and gave to the Chair to look at and bring to the next meeting..
- 2.3. Annual budget – Noted. All in favour.

----------------------------------	-----------	-------

6 PCC report

Cllr Harries not in attendance.

7 Any other business

7.1 D Haden – still no news about Barham Road.

A Phelps said the bus shelter seating (wood planks) needed replacing. Will get a quote for next meeting.

D Williams – noticeboard in Sceddau – there is a massive power cable from the pole going towards Fishguard. There is no record of wires going past the bus shelter. Will find someone who can test if there are cables underground.

J Miles – mirror at Hescwm Villa. They need to ask for permission from PCC.

M Raymond – potholes from Jordanston to Llangwarren still there. Clerk to report again.

D Haden – Wesley Hill footpath needs resurfacing. Clerk to report.

D Williams thanked A Phillips for all his hard work with the village flowers.

Date of next meeting Monday 12th June.

Meeting closed at 8.00pm
